REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

Director Lacey stated there was no right to sue letters issued for the month of April. Director Lacey stated there was one case settled in conciliation in the month of April. The case involved allegations of racial profiling in a retail establishment; the Complainant was falsely accused of shoplifting. The Director stated the case settled for $1,250.00 and relief in the public interest.

Director Lacey stated she attended a HUD Region VII training where disability discrimination was discussed. Director Lacey stated she continues to monitor COVID-19 rates and its impact on office functions. The Director stated the area is low on reports of cases, but reporting has waned in the state. Director Lacey stated she attended the Scott County Cultural Equity Meeting where they discussed that adverse childhood experiences are high in Scott County. Director Lacey stated she and the Housing Analyst continued to work on preparation for the Anniversary Event of the Davenport Civil Rights Commission. The Director stated the DOJ has a speaker for sexual harrassment in housing. Director Lacey stated she will have a presentation as well. Director Lacey stated she and the Housing Analyst worked on developing housing related outreach and education events.

NEW BUSINESS

A. Commission Meeting Format

There was a brief discussion of the Commission's current meeting format which is online using Zoom.
